Defendants shall also make a total payment of $32,000 in interest, to be divided among the consumers identified as receiving payments pursuant to this paragraph pro rata in proportion to the respective amounts of fees or costs refunded to each consumer.

4.5 For each Washington consumer against whom Defendants obtained a judgment for garnishment fees or costs from October 15, 2012 to the present, when no funds were captured in the garnishment, and from whom Defendants did not subsequently recover the fees or costs,

1 Defendants shall forgive and write off all such garnishment fees and costs from any 2 corresponding judgment account balances for the consumer.

3 4.6 Defendants shall refund a total amount of $238,000 to be divided among 4 Washington consumers from whom Defendants collected funds through original collection 5 efforts and collection actions newly filed from August 1, 2011 to October 14, 2012, pro rata in 6 proportion to the respective amounts Defendants recovered from each consumer during that 7 period. For purposes of this paragraph, "original collection efforts and collection actions newly 8 filed" excludes accounts previously collected and debt collection actions previously filed by 9 others before August 1, 2011.

10 4.7 For Washington consumer Melanie Shelton, Defendants shall vacate the 11 garnishment judgment that was entered in Thurston County Superior Court on January 6, 2021, 12 in the amount of $1,457.36 (including $1,258.68 garnishment judgment plus $198.68 costs), and

23 attorneys to fund Defendants' restitution obligations as set forth above. The funds transferred to 24 the blocked account shall only be used (a) to fund payments to consumers as set forth in 25 paragraphs 4.2 through 4.8; (b) to transfer any residual funds to the AGO that were designated 26 for distribution but remain undistributed because issued checks mailed to consumers were

1 uncashed, undeliverable, or returned, as set forth in paragraph 4.12; and (c) to return funds to 2 Defendants to the extent that the estimated restitution amounts under paragraphs 4.2, 4.3 and 4.4
3 prove to be greater than the amount necessary to fully fund Defendants' payment obligations 4 under those paragraphs, as set forth in paragraph 4.10.

5 4.10 Defendants shall provide the AGO with an accounting identifying the consumers 6 who qualified for each category of relief and the amount of relief provided as set forth in 7 paragraph 4.11. The Parties understand and agree that Defendants' restitution obligations under 8 paragraphs 4.2, 4.3 and 4.4 may be more or less than the amounts estimated above. If the 9 estimated amounts are insufficient to cover Defendants' obligations under those paragraphs,
10 Defendants shall transfer additional funds to the blocked trust account sufficient to fully fund 11 their payment obligations under those paragraphs within fourteen (14) days of notice of 12 insufficiency. If the estimated amounts are greater than required to provide full restitution under 13 those paragraphs, the difference shall be returned to Defendants within fourteen (14) days of the

18 and 4.7; (c) provide the issued checks to the AGO so that the AGO can mail the checks to 19 consumers with a cover letter from the AGO; and (d) provide the AGO with an accounting 20 identifying the consumers who were eligible for each category of relief and the amount of relief 21 provided to each consumer. Defendants should send the issued checks to the Office of the 25 and Amy Teng at amy.teng@atg.wa.gov.

1 4.12 Unless the Parties later stipulate in writing to another time frame, one hundred
2 eighty (180) days from the date the AGO mails the checks to eligible consumers, any remaining
3 amounts that were designated for distribution but remain undistributed because issued checks 4 mailed to consumers were uncashed, undeliverable, or returned, shall be paid by Defendants to 5 the AGO to the address set forth in paragraph 5.2. The AGO may apply the funds to a cy pres
